

Arenal Volcano Pre-Post Extension

3Days - 2Night

At the center of a national park in the northwest of the country, the perfectly conical, 1633m (5356ft) Arenal volcano is everyone's image of a typical volcano. The volcano has been exceptionally active since 1968. The degree of activity varies from week to week; sometimes there is a spectacular display of flowing red-hot lava and incandescent rocks flying through the air; at other times, the volcano is more placid and gently glows in the dark. The area around the Arenal offers lush green tropical vegetation all year round.

Day 01 San José - Arenal (Dinner included)

Breakfast at the hotel

You would be picked up at the lobby of your hotel for your transfer to Arenal area.

Check in at the hotel and free afternoon to explore the hotel surroundings and admire the volcano from a safe point.

During the early evening we will also visit the local hot volcanic springs for a swim and dinner at a local restaurant.

Accommodation at Hotel Montaña de Fuego or similar

Day 02 Arenal – Caño Negro (Breakfast and Lunch included)

Early breakfast at the hotel. Day at Arenal, full day activity in the Caño Negro Tour.

Caño Negro Wildlife Refuge is one of the most important wetland regions in Central America, considered of international importance as it protects a number of endangered migratory species. Driving north through rolling agricultural land, arrive at the tiny town of Los Chiles, where you board a boat for a trip down the Rio Frio. In addition to the wide range of birds that live along the river - including the aninga, roseate spoonbill, and wood stork- turtles, caiman, sloth and monkeys may be seen.

Accommodation at Montaña de Fuego Hotel or similar

Day 03 San José

Breakfast at the hotel. Shuttle transportation from Arenal area back to San José

IMPORTANT REMARK

Participants doing the pre extension will be dropped off at Ramada Plaza Herradura Hotel. For participants doing the post extension and need to stay an extra night in San José before departure, please refer to our San José 1 night extension with its different accommodation options.
